Office of the President
No. 122, Sec. 1, Chongqing S. Rd.,
Zhongzheng District Taipei City 100006,
Taiwan (ROC)

President Tsai,

Sincerest congratulations to you and the people of Taiwan on celebrating 110 years of freedom and independence. October 10th is a celebratory day for all freedom-loving people in Taiwan and around the world.

The Taiwanese-American relationship is one of our most important and mutually beneficial friendships. For over 40 years we have maintained a strong bond with one another, linked by our common belief in self-government, individual freedom, and the rule of law.

I am grateful for our countries' long-standing friendship. At a time when there is abundant chaos in the world, it is comforting that the United States has a dependable friend and ally. Our longstanding friendship has resulted in significant trade between our two nations. In fact, three Arizona cities – Chandler, which is in my congressional district, Flagstaff, and Phoenix – have established sister city relationships that facilitate the important exchange of culture, education, and business.

Taiwan continues to be a beacon of hope for the people of China struggling under the oppression and tyranny of the Chinese Communist Party. I am committed to promoting the freedom and independence of Taiwan and look forward to many more years of friendship.

Sincerely,

Andy Biggs
Member of Congress
