

Congress of the United States
Washington, DC 20515

March 15, 2024

The Honorable Barry Loudermilk
Chairman, Subcommittee on Oversight
Committee on House Administration
2133 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Chairman Loudermilk,

Thank you for your work thus far conducting oversight over the misinformation propagated by the January 6th Committee. You have produced significant evidence demonstrating the irrefutable bias and illegitimacy of the Committee.

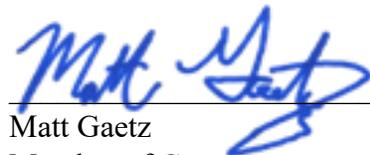

I appreciated the opportunity to review your Subcommittee report, which exposed the January 6th Committee's omission of material evidence and witness testimony that contradicted its predetermined narrative. I urge you and your team to continue in their inquiry.

As you continue your work, I encourage you to conduct further oversight over the January 6th Committee's decision to recommend contempt of Congress charges against former Trump Administration officials. As you are likely aware, former White House Director of the Office of Trade and Manufacturing Policy Peter Navarro has been ordered to report to prison next week based on his refusal to comply with the demands of the committee that has been shown to be illegitimately constituted and hopelessly tainted.

All the best,

Andy Biggs
Member of Congress

Matt Gaetz
